Seneca County Habitat for Humanity Announces Carnicelli Family Joins Partnership Program

Seneca Falls, N.Y. – Habitat for Humanity of Seneca County (“HFHSC”) is pleased to announce the acceptance of the Carnicelli family into its partnership program. The Carnicelli household has eleven members including nine children ranging from three to seventeen years of age. Alicia, Jason and their eldest son will each complete 250 hours of sweat equity – on construction sites and/or through home ownership related trainings. Upon completion of this two story build in 2020, Jason and Alicia will purchase their home at a zero percent interest mortgage.

HFHSC’s current rehabilitation projects are on Miller Street and Fall Street in Seneca Falls. It is through the generosity of the community members, who donate their time and energy, that HFHSC is able to build strength, stability and self-reliance through shelter. Volunteers are encouraged to stop by 31 Miller Street in Seneca Falls on Tuesdays/Thursdays between 4-7pm or Saturdays between 8am-3pm. Please check HFHSC’s Facebook page for construction and general updates and direct questions to info@habitatseneca.org.

HFHSC’s mission is furthered through faithful support from the following Annual Sponsors and Trades: Adam Olschewske from Marshall Interiors, Arno Brothers Drywall, Brian Sparrow from Sparrow Plumbing and Heating, Caratozzolo Electric, Eagle Auto Center, Ed Thurston from Thurston Services, Ferrara Lumber, Gary Reynolds from Reynolds Masonry, Generations Bank, ITT/Gould’s Pumps, Joe Caratozzolo Plumbing and Heating, Matt Shumway from M&M Electrical Surplus, New York Chiropractic College, Seneca Meadows, Seneca Returnables and Seneca Stone Corporation.
